OUR TOURS:

Our products are as vast and varied as our country FROM KAMCHATKA ON THE EAST TO BREST AND KALININGRAD ON THE WEST. Our tours are proven and a hand-picked selection of quality accommodation, excursions, activities and transportation options.

The world’s greatest railway journey, the TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILWAY runs from Moscow over the Urals, across the magnificent Russian steppes and alongside the shores of the world’s largest freshwater lake Baikal. You will cover 9,000 kilometres, passing through eight time zones and 80 towns and cities As well as Moscow, you will also stop at Yekaterinburg - where the Romanovs were executed - Kazan, with its beautiful Kremlin, the 'Paris of Siberia' at Irkutsk and Ulan Ude, capital of the Buryat Republic.

Prepare to recalibrate your sense of wonder. KAMCHATKA may be scarcely populated but few places on earth feel so alive as Russia’s eastern appendix: ill-tempered volcanoes loom over bubbling mud pools, hot springs simmer at the base of lava flows, creeping glaciers stand tall on the shoulder of mountains while the nearby sea is home to rich marine life..

RUSSIAN RIVER CRUISES. The best way to explore Russia is by ship! Russia is a land blessed with abundant rivers and inland seas. The paths of these inner waterways flow among the most breathtaking sights in Russia. The cruises through Russia are set up in a way to make the travelers emerge with the better understanding of Russia, it's culture and traditions.

MOSCOW is an amazing city. There are dozens of reasons to come. Being one of the most breathtaking capitals in the world, Moscow has a wide range of entertainments and cultural hot spots. We suggest exploring them all.

For centuries the KREMLIN has been the historic place from where the control of great and powerful Russian state has been executed. This symbol of state power, in fact, is by itself a small country with its own history, traditions, laws, attitudes and lifestyles. The Kremlin has witnessed the life of the high and mighty as well as the events that changed the world’s history. Yes, the Kremlin walls have seen a lot ...

Visiting the ARMORY CHAMBER is an integral part of any trip to Moscow, no matter the time of year. Serving as a modern treasure house, it is a part of the Grand Kremlin Palace Complex. The armory began as the arsenal of the Moscow Kremlin as early as 1508, where were housed the finest of Muscovite gunsmiths, jewellers, and painters. Their resulting collection was later served as the Kremlin’s Great Treasury, and included many of the precious items that have been preserved for centuries.

If the Armoury hasn’t sated your lust for diamonds, there are more in the DIAMOND FUND EXHIBITION. The fund dates back to 1719, when Peter the Great established the Russian Crown treasury. These gemstones and jewellery were garnered by tsars and empresses, including the 190-carat diamond given to Catherine the Great by her lover Grigory Orlov. The Great Imperial Crown, encrusted with 4936 diamonds, was the coronation crown of Catherine the Great and successive rulers.

TRERYAKOV ART GALLERY. No other museum would offer you a better insight into and an overview of the Russian art. The gallery’s collection covers 1000 years of the Russian art and boasts many inspiring masterpieces of the world level. Here you will see portraits of the Russian Tsars and leading noblemen, famous people such as writers Leo Tolstoy, Fyodor Dostoevsky and Anton Chekhov, composer Peter Tchaikovsky, landscapes and genre paintings showing Russia centuries ago, and simply stunningly beautiful works of art that each justifies a visit to this remarkable museum.

NIGHT LIFE in Moscow is divisive as everything else. Bars, clubs, concerts, parties – you can find here anything you want and can imagine. We heart Moscow suggests you some really nice places for you not to get lost in all this splendor.

THE TOWNS OF GOLDEN RING

For those who are interested in Russian history, customs and traditions…

One of the most fascinating regions in Russia. This ancient heart of Russia with its old white washed city walls and venerable onion-domed churches created the world's definition of medieval Rus. In this enchanted region time stands still.

This is what world-famous route through ancient Russian cities known as "THE GOLDEN RING" is about. Great historical and architectural treasures of Russian national culture and art at a slower pace and in a peaceful surrounding.
For those wanting a greater insight into Russian culture and history, the Hermitage's extensive collection of artworks literally paints a picture of the nation's captivating past. In fact it's one of the largest and oldest museums in the world!

THE HERMITAGE has about 2.7 million exhibits and displays a full range of world art from Ancient Egypt to early 20th century Europe. It includes works by Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Raphael, Titian, unique collections of Rembrandt, Rubens, French Impressionists But museum is not just a place full of treasures, but the museum itself is a real jewel, piece of antiquity, a house of mysterious Russian history.

The vast golden dome dominating the St Petersburg skyline is the neo-classical ST ISAAC'S CATHEDRAL. 100kg of gold leaf were used for the dome and the end result - a lavish interior of marble and mosaic - is a must-see.

The interior is richly decorated with mosaics so intricate that you can hardly tell them from a painting, with exquisite combination of semiprecious stones, gilded sculptures and bronze bas-reliefs. You can find 14 types of colored Italian marble in the decoration of the interior. The columns of the main icon-stand are made of malachite and lapis-lazuli.

If any proof is needed for the extravagance of Russia's Imperial rulers, then it can be found in the fact that, in less than two centuries, the Romanov Tsars established this suburban estate named TSARSKOE SELO (TSAR VILLAGE) - that, in terms of grandeur and excess, outstrip even famous French Palaces and gorgeous Italian Villas.

The palace is nearly 1km in circumference, with elaborately decorated blue-and-white facades featuring gilded atlantes, caryatids and pilasters. It took over 100kg of gold to decorate the palace exteriors. The interiors of the Catherine Palace are no less spectacular. THE AMBER ROOM in the Palace was a complete chamber decoration of amber panels backed with gold leaf and mirrors. Due to its singular beauty, it was sometimes dubbed the "Eighth Wonder of the World".

PETERHOF is a gala summer tsar residence. A splendid park on the shore of the Baltic Sea with more than 150 fountains, 4 big cascades, beautiful palaces, blooming flowers and friendly squirrels – this place is really a must to visit.

French Versailles was indeed Peter the Great inspiration when he decided to build an imperial palace and many say Peterhof is even more beautiful than the famous French complex. The focal point of the whole ensemble is the jaw-dropping cascade fountain leading down from the palace.

As of today the Peterhof is decorated by the biggest system of water cascades, fountains and sculptural elements in the world.

KARELIA is renowned for its natural beauty, wildlife and pretty wooden villages and churches. Bears, wolverines, martens and eagles are among some of the species to be found wandering Karelia’s endless forest, hills and lake shores.

There are more than 61 thousand lakes in Karelia. By their quantity on the territory of 1,000 sq.m., Karelia takes the first place not only among the regions of Russia, but also in the whole world.

The pogost of KIZHI (i.e. the Kizhi enclosure) is located on one of the many islands in Lake Onega, in Karelia. Two 18th-century wooden churches, and an octagonal clock tower, also in wood and built in 1862, can be seen there. These unusual constructions, in which carpenters created a bold visionary architecture, perpetuate an ancient model of parish space and are in harmony with the surrounding landscape.

Visiting the Kizhi RESTORATION WORK SHOP is an unique opportunity to see with your own eyes internal designs of the churches and their doms. Leading restorers will tell you about unique engineering and artistic secrets.

What can be more exiting than see HUSKY DOG FARM? Although these dogs may look like fierce wolves, Huskys are the most friendly, efficient and intelligent dogs in the world.

During the 2 weeks of the 2014 Games, Sochi became one of the most desirable places for visitors around the world. Skiing in the winter or having perfect side holidays in summer… There are many things to do and enjoy, and there are many things to see and surprise yourself!

The AKHUN MOUNTAIN OBSERVATION TOWER is pretty hard to miss - what with it being the highest mountain around, located about 10 km southwest of the city center. Atop of the mountain is an old observation tower that was built in 1936, which can actually be seen from the center of Sochi itself.

STALIN’S DACHA - the former Summer Residence of the Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin. It’s one of the few real-life relics left in Sochi from the communist times. During our guided tour you will have a chance to see the favourite amenities of Stalin: the shallow indoor pool, the billiard table, the cinema, and much more.

A scenic road passing through a deep, narrow canyon leads up from Adler to KRASNAYA POLYANA (Red Valley), Russia’s newly built ski mecca that hosted the 2014 Winter Olympics ski events. The scenery here is simply spectacular. The undoubted jewel in the Olympic crown here is the Roza Khutor Alpine Resort, which hosted downhill skiing events at the Winter Games. Enjoy the magnificent panorama of the village and surrounding mountains featuring ancient dolmens, waterfalls mineral water springs.
3RD CAPITAL OF RUSSIA: Being the city of unique cultural heritage, Kazan is included in the World Heritage Cities List and has been awarded with a medal of the UNESCO.

As the capital city of the Republic of Tatarstan, Kazan is a glorious city that represents Russia’s Tsarist past. With complex palaces, towering churches, and a thriving cultural scene, Kazan is a pure Russian city with incredible beauty and heart. The CITY TOUR includes the most famous sights of Kazan: Old Tatar Sloboda, a Tatar village Tugan Avylym in the city center, the oldest mosque Marjani, Kamal theatre, the mysterious lake Kaban, Kazan Millennium Park, Liberty Square, the Kazan University, Kazanka river embankment, offering unique views of the coast of the Kazan Riviera.

One of the main attractions of Kazan is THE KAZAN KREMLIN. Built by Ivan the Terrible on the ruins of the palace of the Kazan Khanate that he destroyed, this white fortress is a beautiful sight in any season. The Kremlin of Kazan reflects not only the ethnic mix of Tatars and Russians that make up this important region of the Russian Federation, but also the combined strength of the region’s two great religions: Islam and Orthodox Christianity.

The magnificent KUL SHARIF MOSQUE, named for Kazan’s last great Imam before Ivan the Terrible invaded and seized the city, is the Kremlin’s main jewel. It is the largest Muslim place of worship in Europe, and serves as home to a rich collection of ancient books.
